

I do not want to see our current law on phone call solicitation changed. There are too many calls falling through the cracks.